Pastor Elijah Bronner: We thank God for this very special moment to be able to celebrate His sacrifice and His love for us and this is just a remembrance. He said, "Do this as often as you need to in remembrance of me." Just to remember the importance of the breaking of his body and the shedding of His blood for us. He loved us so much to rid us from all of our sins, and all of our inequities and shortcomings and all of our failures and all of the curses. Just to eliminate from our lives the oppression of the enemy and He granted us into His family. He loved us so much that He refused to live without us and He came down to receive us as His own. So He loves us, He set us free so we are no longer in bondage. We are no longer in bondage to sin or any hindrance or any addiction or anything plaguing your mind or anything that entangles you or makes you feel unworthy or less than... No, you are a part of the royal family and He loves you so much and He shed His own blood for you and He became the perfect sacrifice. Then He became the high priest that administered the sacrifice.

Praise God! We love Him so much. Praise God! Let us just pray.

Father, we just thank You so much, as we remember You, we honor You at the same time we search our own lives, our own hearts, God.

Lord we ask You to forgive us. We have all missed and we have all sinned. And we ask You to forgive us right now. In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, we ask You to cleanse us of all unrighteousness through the blood of Jesus, the precious blood of Jesus.

We have been redeemed by this blood, God. Lord, we just take our rightful place right now as sons and daughters of God.

We hold our heads up, and we throw our shoulders back and we realize that we are royalty and we thank You for it right now.

Lord, we walk in light of everything that this represents. We walk in light that this covenant enforces all the goodness of Your word and everything that belongs to us.

So we walk in light of our righteousness. We walk in light of our sonship. We walk in light of our healing. We walk in light of our deliverance. We walk in light of our prosperity. We walk in light God of all of the gifts, everything You purchased for us Lord. We walk in light of it.

We walk in light of the fact that the enemy is under our feet. He cannot torment us any longer. We walk in light of the fact that he is defeated and we reign supreme in Christ Jesus. We walk in light of the fact that we are joint heirs with Christ and we are heirs of God.

We walk in light of the fact that our salvation has been purchased and secured. We walk in light of the fact that we are more than conquerors through Christ Jesus, through him that loved us. We walk in light of the fact that we are the head and not the tail, that we are above and not beneath, that we are lenders and not borrowers.

We walk in light that we are well and not sick, that we are alive in Christ Jesus. We walk in light of the fact that we have been raised up together with Him, seated in heavenly places. We walk in light of the fact that we have angels in our midst that go with us everywhere we go. We walk in light of the fact that we have a name above every name.

Thank you Father. Thank you Lord God. Thank you, Jesus.

Thank you Father.

Praise God. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Amen.

I just wanted to remind you why we take communion. We do it in remembrance, that He wants you to remember all these things. He wants you to remember this. We do this in remembrance. Remember. Praise God.

That thee Lord Jesus, the same night in which He was betrayed, He took bread and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat. This is My body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of Me."

In the same manner, He took the cup. After He had supped, saying, "This cup is the new testament or the new covenant in My blood. This, do ye as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."
